Welcome and Introduction

Welcome to Back to the Altar | 100 Days of Prayer.

We are living in a world full of digital distractions, consuming cares, busyness, and broken down altars of worship. If you are feeling in need of a fresh re-boot in your spiritual journey, desiring to rebuild or strengthen your altar of worship, longing for more Holy Spirit revival fire to be poured out on your life, or simply looking for an evangelistic tool to bring others to a deep relationship with Jesus, you've come to the right place.

"Then Elijah said to all the people, 'Come near to me.' So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD [that was] broken down." 1 Kings 18:30

What happened after Elijah repaired the altar? Fire fell from heaven!

God is waiting to pour out that same Holy Spirit fire today, to set ablaze our hearts, our homes, our communities, our world. The Latter Rain is still to come, but the Holy Spirit is even now being poured out in richer and richer measure. Let's not miss what God is waiting to do!

“It All Started with One Man”

By Mark Finley

“Will You not revive us again, that Your people may rejoice in You?” Ps. 85:6

One of the greatest revivals in history was the Welsh Revival of 1904. Twenty-six-year-old Evan Roberts had been praying for thirteen years that his life would be totally controlled by the Holy Spirit. He pled with God for an undivided heart—a heart totally committed to the kingdom of God.

Evan often prayed late into the night, interceding for the teens and young adults in his church. He prayed regularly that God would visit Wales with revival power. The Welsh Revival began at a youth meeting in Evan Roberts’s own church, Moriah Loughor, when he shared his own experience with God. Evan urged his friends to seek the infilling of God’s Spirit in their own lives. The Holy Spirit touched hearts. Sixteen young people were converted. The sparks of revival begun in this humble village church would ignite flames of revival throughout the country.

It is estimated that within nine months, one hundred thousand people were converted in the tiny country of Wales. The crime rate dropped. Drunkards and prostitutes were transformed by God’s grace. Pubs reported losses. Lloyd George, once prime minister of England, wrote that on one Saturday night at the height of the Welsh Revival one tavern sold only nine cents worth of liquor. Many taverns were transformed into places of prayer.

Political meetings and soccer matches were delayed or even postponed because the churches were packed with praying people. Often these services lasted six to eight hours at a time. Hardened, spiritually calloused Welsh coal miners crowded into these spirit-filled services and returned to the mines changed men. Profanity disappeared from their lips and never returned. It was reported that the pit ponies in the mines failed to understand the commands of these born-again miners who now, without cursing, seemed to speak the language of heaven.

An entire nation was changed because a young man, Evan Roberts, and a group of his young friends took our Lord’s example of passionate intercession seriously.

There is nothing that the church needs more today than genuine spiritual revival. There is nothing that Satan fears more than this promised revival. There is nothing more important for church administrators, pastors, and church members than to seek this revival together. There is no greater priority.

What possibly could be more critical for the people of God than the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in Pentecostal power for the finishing of God’s work on earth? This must be at the top of every board meeting agenda on all levels of church structure. But revival always begins with one man, one woman, one boy, or one girl on his or her knees, seeking God. You can be that one person who is used of God to bring spiritual revival to your home, your church, your school, or your conference.

God's promise is for you: "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land" (2 Chron. 7:14).

The greatest revivals in the history of the world have been the result of earnest, heartfelt intercession. The sparks of revival are kindled on the altar of prayer. The New Testament church was bathed in prayer. These early Christians united in world-changing prayer. And their prayers made a difference.

Jesus is our great model in intercession. He regularly retreated to a quiet place to pray and seek God's strength. He was never too busy to pray. His schedule was never too packed to spend time with His Father in communion. If Jesus, the Divine Son of God, understood that prayer is a necessity, don't we need prayer much more in our own lives?

Mark Finley is assistant to the General Conference president. This devotional was taken from his well-loved book titled "Revive Us Again."

Week 1 | April 4 – 10 | Preparing for Revival | Study

Welcome to the Back to the Altar | 100 Days of Prayer Bible study!

You might be wondering, what is Back to the Altar all about? What does it mean practically? Are we talking about building stone altars like in the Bible times? Are we talking about going back to the altar to renew marriage vows?

Let's watch this introduction video to Back to the Altar.

- Play video 1: "Introduction to Back to the Altar" – <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID1>

In summary, the answer to the above questions is both yes and no. We are building altars, but not altars of stone. Back to the Altar is a world-wide Seventh-day Adventist church initiative that started in the heart of one man who wanted to help his family remove distractions and repair the broken down altar of worship in his own home. That's why we call it a revolution from the inside out.

Today, the vision for Back to the Altar is about making a daily place for God in every heart and in every home. While we are not renewing marriage vows, we are renewing our vows of loyalty and consecration to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords—our heavenly Bridegroom.

Jesus longs to be our first love, our true love. He has so much to share with us. He's just waiting for us to turn our hearts back to Him.

Preparing for Revival – Bible Study

1. Heart Connect

Question to ask yourself: "When you are packing for a long trip, what are 2-3 things that you always want to make sure you take with you?" Write down your answers.

When we are packing for a long trip, we prepare in very practical strategic ways. We have certain things that we always take with us. A similar preparation must take place as we are planning for our journey home to be with Jesus. However, it's not the material things we are most concerned about taking with us. It is what is in the heart. It is our character.

Do you know Jesus as your very best friend? If He were to come back tomorrow, would you be ready to meet Him face to face?

Psalm 26:2 tells us, "Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; Try my mind and my heart."

Before we study how to prepare for revival, we need to ask God to examine our hearts and show us our deep need of revival, our true need of Him.

2. Discipleship Survey

Let's take a moment to watch a short video where one of the Back to the Altar leadership team walks us through a 10-part discipleship survey.

To prepare for this survey, take a blank piece of paper and write the numbers 1-10, from top to bottom. You will put the answer "Yes" or "No" beside each number as a simple discipleship question is asked. Note: Don't put your name on your paper. Your answers are to be anonymous, just between you and God.

Let's play the video!

- Play Video 2: "Discipleship Survey" - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID2>

If you are feeling a little a little discouraged after taking that survey, be encouraged. Jesus tells us, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance" (Mark 2:17).

"God rejoices to bestow His grace upon us, not because we are worthy, but because we are so utterly unworthy. Our only claim to His mercy is our great need" (Ministry of Healing, p. 161).

It is sinners He came to save. If you recognize that you are a sinner, if you are feeling in need, welcome to the family. You are the perfect candidate for what God has to offer in this Back to the Altar revival.

3. How does God's Word define true revival?

Let's pray one more time before we open God's Word. (Pause to pray!)

Read/Reflect on Joel 2:1 – What is the revival urgency seen in this first passage?

Read/Reflect on Joel 2:12-16 – What do these passages tell us about true revival? What is God asking us to do in a true revival?

- Play video 3: "Preparing our Hearts for Revival" - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID3>

Question: What is God speaking to your heart in answer to this revival message found in Joel?

4. Personal Practical Application

Jeremiah 29:13 tells us, "And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart?" If we truly want to experience a Back to the Altar revival, we must seek after Jesus with our all our mind, heart, soul, and strength.

Here's three personal challenges for this first week on our Back to the Altar | 100 Days of Prayer journey!

- 1st Challenge: Start praying daily for God give you a deeper hunger for Him, for His Word, and to help you be ready to meet Him. As you pray, claim Jeremiah 24:7.

- 2nd Challenge: Claim Psalm 139:23-24 as you ask Him to search your heart and reveal anything that might be hindering your heavenward journey. These hindrances could be lifestyle habits, attitudes like selfishness or pride, or perhaps even something material that has taken your heart's focus off Jesus.
- 3rd Challenge: Ask God to teach you how to slow down and take daily unrushed time in His presence that His Word may be your joy and delight. Claim Jeremiah 15:16.

You are invited to join the General Conference weekly Back to the Altar revival on zoom that takes place every Sunday at 6 A.M. Eastern Standard Time. All are welcome!

Now it's time to pray!

Week 1 | April 4 – 10 | Preparing for Revival | Prayer Focus

Bible Promises to Claim as you Pray

"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened." Matt. 7:7-8

"Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full." John 16:24

"The love of God is larger, broader, deeper, than human love can possibly be. It is immeasurable." Christ's Object Lessons, p. 142

Prayer Focus for Week 1

1. READY: Pray for a deeper heart desire and hunger for Jesus, for His Word, and to be ready to meet Him when He returns. (Claim Jeremiah 24:7.)
2. SEARCH: Pray that God would search your heart and reveal anything that might hinder your heavenward journey. Then confess and repent of any spiritual compromises that He brings to your mind. (Claim Psalm 139:23-24, 1 John 1:9.)
3. PREPARE: Pray that God would reveal His great love to you and prepare your heart for what He's about to do in your life during this 100 days of prayer. (Claim Romans 5:8, Psalm 10:17.)
4. ACT: Pray that God would help you slow down and re-prioritize your daily life so that you can find unrushed time with Him in His Word and in prayer. (Claim Matthew 6:33, Jeremiah 15:16.)
5. REBUILD: Pray that God would help you, your family members, your friends, and your church repair any broken down altars of worship or build stronger the altars of worship you have. (Claim 1 Kings 18:30, Psalm 95:6.)
6. FOCUS: Pray that God would forgive us as a church family for being distracted by our digital devices, our worldly pursuits, our idle chatter, our gossip and fault-finding, rather than keeping our focus on the one true thing that matters—to abide in Jesus' presence, and to prepare others for His soon return. (Claim Psalm 27:4, Psalm 16:11.)
7. KEEP ASKING: Pray that the Holy Spirit would be poured out in such rich measure on our church and the upcoming General Conference Session in St. Louis that it would be evident to all watching that Jesus is alive and coming soon! (Claim Luke 11:13.)

“Turning My Heart Toward Home”

By Don MacLafferty

In 1999, on a cold winter night in Michigan, I heard Elijah’s call to turn my heart back to my children. I did not hear this call through the preaching of a sermon from the pulpit or from a chapter in a book. I heard Elijah’s call through the cries of my children.

I was gathering my papers and briefcase so I could run out the door to an important meeting to plan the building of a larger church. I was in a rush. My children, Jason and Julie, were 6 and 3 years old. They heard me getting ready to leave. They ran up to me, asking, “Where are you going, Daddy?”

“I am going to a meeting,” I replied factually.

“Daddy, stay home tonight!” they pleaded. “You are always gone! Daddy, you never play with us anymore!”

I leaned over to give my son and daughter quick hugs and kisses. Their little arms wrapped around me tightly. When I tried to stand up, they would not let me go! They clung to me with desperation. They were trying to keep their over-committed daddy home.

I had to gently pry their arms off my neck so I could go. They started crying. “Daddy, just tonight! Please stay home!”

I backed out of the house and closed the door. As I walked out into the snow, the picture of my children crying and reaching out to me lingered heavily on my heart. As I trudged through the snow to my church meeting, God spoke to my heart. He called me by name. I stopped in my tracks. On that night, as the snow silently fell around me, God called me back to my children. He had first spoken through the cries and the love of my children: “Daddy, stay home!”

That was a very difficult call for me. I was often out seven nights a week, helping others while neglecting my own children. It was a painful call but a call of mercy that led to healing between me, Jason, and Julie.

From that day forward, I began to say no to many requests so I could say yes to my family. It was not easy! God helped me to begin safeguarding time with each child, just as my wife, April, and I had prioritized our time together.

At first, my children’s hearts were not open to me. I had said no to their requests to play too many times. Often, I felt like a failure. But the call of Elijah comes with the healing power of the Lord. The Lord helped my children to forgive me. He literally turned my heart to them and their little hearts back to me. Praise God!

John, with the same Holy Spirit power of Elijah, prepared the people for the coming of the Messiah. Like Elijah, John called for revival. He preached, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matt. 3:2).

John, like Elijah, called the hearts of the fathers back to their children. Today, we are commissioned to do likewise.

John prepared the people of the first century to receive Jesus as the Messiah. Today, we are called to prepare people to receive Jesus as the King of kings who will come in the clouds!

The healing of the family is a pivotal part of revival, and it is a pivotal part of coming back to the altar as we worship together. Revival must be the daily goal in our hearts. Worship at the altar as a family must be the heartbeat of our homes. As our families experience a daily revival with Jesus through worship, time in His written Word, and prayer, the Spirit of God is preparing us to meet Jesus soon! Now is the time to live the message of Elijah for these last days!

Pastor Don MacLafferty is president of In Discipleship, an intergenerational revival ministry. He has authored more than 10 books, including the original “The Way Back to the Altar” discipleship curriculum which is being used during this 100 Days of Prayer. He assists the General Conference as a volunteer and leads out with Back to the Altar training programs all around the world.

Week 2 | April 11 – 17 | Worshiping Together | Study

Welcome to another session of Back to the Altar | 100 Days of Prayer!

We are living in a world full of digital distractions, consuming cares, busyness, and broken down altars of worship. Our family altars are falling apart as well. But no personal situation, no family situation or broken family altar is too difficult for God to restore.

If you (or your family) are feeling in need of a fresh re-boot in your spiritual journey, desiring to rebuild or strengthen your altar of worship, or longing for more Holy Spirit revival fire to be poured out on your life, this week's Back to the Altar prayer revival is for you.

"Then Elijah said to all the people, 'Come near to me.' So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD [that was] broken down." 2 Kings 18:30

What happened after Elijah repaired the altar? Fire fell from heaven!

God is waiting to pour out that same Holy Spirit fire today, to set ablaze our hearts, our homes, our communities, our world. The Latter Rain is still to come, but the Holy Spirit is even now being poured out in richer and richer measure. Do you see it? Are you experiencing it?

Soberly we are told, "Only those who are living up to the light they have will receive greater light. Unless we are daily advancing in the exemplification of the active Christian virtues, we shall not recognize the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. It may be falling on hearts all around us, but we shall not discern or receive it" (Last Day Events, p. 195).

Let's not delay any longer. Jesus is knocking on our heart's door. Let's ask, let's receive, let's live with Holy Spirit power—today. "With the persevering faith of Jacob, with the unyielding persistence of Elijah, claim for yourself all that God has promised" (Christ's Object Lessons, p. 149). His promises are yours!

Worshiping Together – Bible Study

1. Heart Connect

Question to ask yourself: Do you ever long for people to appreciate you and see you for who you are on the inside? What is one thing that you wish your friends, family, or church family would recognize in you? Write your answer down.

Read/Reflect on Ephesians 4:29

- What difference would it make in your life if you actively lived this passage?
- What difference would it make in our church if everyone followed this counsel?
- How can you share the power of this passage with a family member or a friend?

Let's take a moment to watch a fun video, illustrating this passage in a creative way.

- Play video 1 - "Building Each Other Up" - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID4>

How important that we be intentional with our words and actions towards one another.

2. Worshiping Our King Together

If we appreciate being noticed and appreciated for who we are and what we do, how much more must our King and Lord appreciate gratitude and praise? Psalm 22:3 tells us, He “inhabits” the praises of His people. In other words, He lives in an environment of praise.

Prayer Moment: Take a few minutes (in your small groups) to praise God for Who He is, and to thank Him for some of the things you appreciate about Him.

After you have spent a few minutes in praise, is it as tempting to criticize one another or tear each other down? No, love for God and for each other grows in our hearts. Let’s learn to practice a spirit of praise daily.

3. Making Worship a Priority

What priority should worship have in our life?

Read/Reflect on Genesis 12:1-9

- What were Abraham’s personal priorities?
- Do you find any message here about the order of his priorities for family and worship?
- What evidence do we have that Isaac was influenced by his father’s call to worship? (Can you find a passage or two as examples of Isaac’s worship habits?)

Read/Reflect on Malachi 4:5-6

- How does this prophecy impact our hearts, our family worship, and what is the connection between the two?

Let’s pray for God to make this passage a reality in our own homes. The following short video will take this message deeper.

- Play video 2 - “Turning the Heart Back” - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID5>

Do you desire for God to turn your heart and the heart of your loved ones back together? Do you desire for God to rebuild the altar of worship in your home? God can do it. God will do it! But it starts with you!

4. Personal Practical Application

As we pray to truly build stronger the altar of worship as individuals, families, and churches, accept the following Back to the Alter personal challenges this week.

- 1st Challenge: Pray that God would enrich your personal time with Him, and that He would daily put fresh praises in your heart and on your lips.

- 2nd Challenge: Next time you are tempted to say something negative or tear someone down or watch someone else tear another believer down (whether in their presence, behind their back, or even online) ask God to help you build that person up instead! Refuse to join the ranks of “accuser” of the brethren (See Rev. 12:10).
- 3rd Challenge: In addition to taking unrushed personal time daily with Jesus, ask God to help you have a special interactive worship with your family (or a friend) at least 1-2 times this next week. Pray for God to give you creative ways to connect His truth with the hearts of those around you.

Creative connect activities can go a long way for bringing a spiritual point home in a way that will never be forgotten. Try this with your family! See what God does.

You are invited to join the General Conference weekly Back to the Altar revival on zoom that takes place every Sunday at 6 A.M. Eastern Standard Time. All are welcome!

What it Means to be a Disciple - Resource Materials

Week 3 | April 18 – 24 | To Be a Disciple | Testimony

“The Test of Discipleship”

By Ron Clouzet

“For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.” Rom. 8:18

Back in 1921, a missionary couple named David and Svea Flood went with their 2-year-old son from Sweden to the heart of Africa, to what was then called the Belgian Congo. They met up with another young Scandinavian couple, the Ericksons, and the four of them sought God for direction. In those days of great sacrifice, they felt the Lord leading them to set out from the main mission station and take the gospel to a remote area.

At the village of N’dolera they were rebuffed by the chief, who would not let them enter his town, for fear of alienating the local gods. The two couples opted to go half a mile up the slope and build their own mud huts. They prayed for a spiritual breakthrough, but there was none. The only contact with the villagers was a young boy, who was allowed to sell them chickens and eggs twice a week. Svea Flood, a tiny woman only four feet, eight inches tall, decided that if this was the only African she could talk to, she would try to lead him to Jesus. So day after day, she told the boy about Jesus and the God of heaven.

Meanwhile, malaria continued to strike one member of the little band after another. In time, the Ericksons decided they’d had enough and returned to the central mission station. David and Svea Flood remained near N’dolera to go on alone. Then, of all things, Svea found herself pregnant in the middle of the primitive wilderness. She gave birth to a tiny girl, whom they named Aina. The delivery, however, was exhausting, and Svea Flood was already weak from bouts of malaria. She died seventeen days later.

David couldn’t take it anymore. After digging a crude grave to bury his wife, he took his children back down the mountain to the mission station and handed them over to the Ericksons. “I’m going back to Sweden.... God has ruined my life,” he snarled.

However, eight months later, both the Ericksons got sick and died. The children were then passed on to American missionaries. Aina’s name was adjusted to “Aggie.” Eventually they were brought back to the states.

How could so much go wrong, when all they wanted to do was serve God in faith? But God had worked through His servant Svea.

Years later, Aggie was grown and married to a pastor who was the president of a Christian college. One day a Swedish religious magazine appeared in her mailbox. Although she couldn’t understand the words, within the magazine was a photo that stopped her cold. There in a primitive setting, was a grave with a white cross, and on the cross were the words SVEA FLOOD. Immediately she rushed to find someone who could translate the Swedish article.

“What does it say?” she asked eagerly.

Her friend summarized the story about the missionaries to N’dolera long ago, the death of Aggie’s young mother, the contact with the African boy, and the fact that many Christians were living in the area now.

A few years later, Aggie and her husband were attending a high-level evangelism conference in London, England, when a report was given from the Republic of Congo. The superintendent of the national church spoke eloquently about the gospel’s spread in his nation. Aggie could not help going to ask him afterward if he had ever heard of David and Svea Flood. What she heard brought tears of joy and thankfulness to her eyes.

“It was Svea Flood who led me to Jesus Christ,” he smiled. “I was the boy who brought eggs to your parents before you were born.”

Svea Flood’s love and Christlikeness and her earnest desire to bless the boy made an eternal impression on him. He accepted Jesus as His Lord and Savior. After he grew up, he persuaded the chief to let him build a school in the village. He led all his students to Christ. Then the children led their parents to Christ, and eventually even the chief himself became a Christian. Today, hundreds of Christian believers live in that one village—and throughout Congo there are hundreds of thousands of believers.

A Christlike life and a Christlike ministry is the result of true discipleship. This is why the Spirit gives us gifts—and we can then bear fruit of His power and grace. This is the reason for His ministry in our lives—to become disciples, to share the gospel with the world.

Week 3 | April 18 – 24 | To Be a Disciple | Study

Welcome to another session of Back to the Altar | 100 Days of Prayer!

Before we get started on today's Back to the Altar study, let's do a review.

If you've been part of Back to the Altar from the beginning, do you remember what we studied in Week 1 and 2? (Write down any key points that come to mind.)

If you don't remember, here's an overview:

- Week One: The first week we studied Joel 1 and 2. We talked about preparing for revival and about our need for the Holy Spirit to rend/break our hearts.

Is Joel 2:13 becoming a reality in your life?

There were three challenges in Week 1:

The 1st challenge was to pray that God would give us a deeper hunger for Him, for His Word, and to be ready to meet Him. The 2nd challenge was to ask God to reveal any things that might be hindering our heavenward journey, and to repent and confess those sins of distraction or compromise. The 3rd challenge was to slow down and take daily unrushed time with Him.

How has God worked in your life through the above three challenges? (Write down your answers. Write down how you feel the need to grow.)

- Week Two: We learned how God is calling us to rebuild our altars of worship, both individually and as family, just like Elijah, and just like Abraham.

Two distinct challenges were given. The 1st challenge was to cultivate a spirit of praise and build others up instead of tearing them down. The 2nd challenge was to have worship together with your family or friends at least 1-2 times this week.

What happened this past week? Are you finding yourself praising God more, affirming others more, seeking to build others up? Did you have worship with a family member or friend?

In the coming weeks, pray that God would help worship to be a daily routine for you and your family or loved ones.

Learning what it means to be a disciple

For today's Back to the Altar study, we are going to start off with a fun little activity. You are going to need a partner for this activity.

1. Connect Activity

If you are able, find a partner, whether it's someone studying this lesson with you, a family member, or just a friend nearby. Ask them to close their eyes and trust you on a blind walk. Be nice. Don't do anything that would hurt them. Just have them keep their eyes closed as you lead them around a room, or around some obstacles on the floor or ground. You are not to touch them, but you can walk beside them. They simply need to follow your voice to know where to walk. After a minute or so, switch roles and ask your partner to do the same for you.

This might seem like a strange activity, but do it, and you will understand in a moment, why this activity is significant.

(Do the above activity before going further in today's lesson!)

Wasn't that fun? Chances are you both had some good laughs through that little exercise.

Now ask yourself, "How does this little trust walk teach me practical lessons on what it means to be a disciple of Jesus?" (Write down your thoughts or share them with your friend or family member.)

Do you long to walk every day as a trusting disciple of Jesus Christ?

You may be wondering: What is a disciple of Jesus? How do I trust Him more? Thankfully, the written Word of God answers this question.

2. Lessons from the Disciples of Jesus

It's time to open our Bibles and learn together what it means to be a disciple of Jesus.

In your notebook, or on a piece of paper write: "A Disciple of Jesus..." and then start making a list based on the following Bible passages.

Read/Reflect on Matthew 4:18-22 – How many characteristics of a disciple of Jesus can you find in this passage?

As you reflect on this passage, we will watch a short video to help take this passage deeper.

- Play Video 1 – "What it means to be a Disciple" - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID7>

Now read and reflect on the following passages of Scripture.

Read/Reflect on John 13:35 and John 15:7-8 – What is a disciple of Jesus based on these two passages?

Read/Reflect on Matthew 16:24 and Matthew 28:19-20 – How many characteristics of a disciple of Jesus do you find in these two passages? (There should be 6 or more.)

How is this study speaking to your heart?

We are learning that a disciple of Jesus follows Jesus wherever He leads, even if it's uncomfortable. A disciple looks like Jesus, lives like Jesus, loves others, and sacrifices self to bring others to Jesus.

Perhaps you feel like you don't have enough experience to bring others to Jesus. You are just barely walking with Him yourself. Or maybe you have lots of experience, but you are tired and weary and feel like you've lost your first love.

Let's take a few minutes to watch a precious testimony about how God can use even a child to be a disciple calling a whole church to revival. If God can use a child, He can use any one of us.

- Play Video 2 – “Testimony: Discipleship from a Little Child”
<https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID8>

What a precious testimony. The question we should consider is, “What is Jesus asking of me right now?”

3. Personal Practical Application

Here are three practical Back to the Altar challenges for this coming week.

- 1st Challenge: Study the Bible passages again on your own, that we covered in this lesson. Those passages are Matthew 4:18-22, John 13:35, John 15:7-8, Matthew 16:24 and Matthew 28:19-20. For each passage, ask God how He wants to apply these principles of discipleship to your life.
- 2nd Challenge: Take a step of faith and follow Jesus in a way that you never have before.

Next week, we are going to start sharing short revival lessons from the life of Elijah. It's a study that you do not want to miss as we continue this Back to the Altar journey! Invite family and friends, even neighbors.

Don't forget, you are invited to join the General Conference weekly Back to the Altar revival on zoom that takes place every Sunday at 6 A.M. Eastern Standard Time. All are welcome!

Week 3 | April 18 – 24 | To Be a Disciple | Prayer Focus

Bible Promises to Claim as you Pray

“He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.” 1 John 2:6

“Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 18:3-4

“Every true disciple is born into the kingdom of God as a missionary. He who drinks of the living water becomes a fountain of life. The receiver becomes a giver. The grace of Christ in the soul is like a spring in the desert, welling up to refresh all, and making those who are ready to perish eager to drink of the water of life.” Desire of Ages, p. 195

1. HUMBLE: Pray that God would strengthen us as a church family to humble ourselves as little children at the foot of the cross, to put away our quarrels, our grievances, to press together, and to prepare our hearts for Jesus’ soon coming. (Claim Isaiah 57:15)
2. DISCIPLES: Pray that we would be true disciples of Jesus—in our home, in our workplace, in our school, in our business, and in private where no one sees but God. (Claim Romans 2:28-29, 1 Samuel 16:7)
3. WORSHIP: Pray that no distractions would keep us from daily worship and that we would live at the altar, both individually and as families, with all our heart and soul. (Claim 1 Chronicles 16:29)

Come to Jesus as You Are - Resource Materials

Week 4 | April 25 – May 1 | Come to Jesus as You Are | Testimony

“An Imperfect Broken Offering”

By Melody Mason

*“The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart—
These, O God, You will not despise.” Psalm 51:17*

I will never forget the time a number of years ago, as I was preparing to lead a prayer service for a large event the next day, how the Holy Spirit convicted me of something specific in my life that I needed to make right with God. Overwhelmed, I sank to my knees on the floor that night as I prayed, “Oh Lord, please forgive me...”

However, while I confessed my sin to God, certain steps were necessary to make proper amends. But I couldn’t take these steps immediately, so I wasn’t sure what to do. Should I still go forward with my prayer ministry responsibilities or should I get someone else to fill in for me until I had made things right?

As a respected leader in ministry, it was very humiliating to think of admitting to others that I had failed God in a specific area. I didn't want to make a stir and appear spiritually weak to my teammates, or to the many strangers in attendance at the meetings. So, with a heavy heart and tears in my eyes, I went to sleep that night, determined that I would just ask someone else to lead the prayer service the next day.

However, the next morning as I set out to find someone to take my place, God stopped me in my tracks as the Holy Spirit began speaking to my heart. "Melody, you need to lead the prayer service this morning. Don't get someone to replace you!"

“Wait God...You can’t mean this!” I said as fresh tears came to my eyes. But the Holy Spirit continued to speak to my heart.

“Yes, I want you to lead, however, you are not to lead it as the person you want everyone to think you are. Don’t you see? I’m not looking for people to lead who cover up their sins and go on as if everything is okay. I’m looking for yielded broken vessels; vessels that will humble themselves to such a degree that pride is gone. Only then can I really use them for my glory. I know this hurts, but you need to share with the congregation what I convicted you of last night. Be honest about how you’ve failed Me! Then invite them to come with you to the cross to put away all sin and compromise. You see, if people wait to come until they have everything in order, they will never come.”

Again, I began to protest. “I can’t do this, Lord! What will everyone think when they see how I’ve failed you?”

The Holy Spirit spoke softly to my heart as He turned my eyes toward heaven. “It doesn’t matter what they think. This is not about protecting your reputation. This is about bringing glory to God. But, if He is to work, you must humble yourself.”

Oh, how I did not want to obey the Holy Spirit's promptings that morning. If I could have run away like Jonah, or crawled in a cave, I would have done so immediately. But I knew what I must do. I had to obey.

Shaking and with tears in my eyes, I went before hundreds of people that morning and shared what the Lord had laid on my heart. You could have heard a pin drop in the room as everyone listened. "Jesus tells us to come as we are," I said softly, as I continued to wipe tears away from my eyes. "So, I'm coming as I am and I'm inviting you to join me at the foot of the cross."

At this invitation everyone got out of their chairs and came forward to the front of the room. There was soft weeping here and there as different people asked God's forgiveness for those areas of sin and compromise that had crept into their lives. And the Holy Spirit was there. In hindsight, I think it was one of the most sweet, sacred prayer services I've ever experienced, for God did a deep work of cleansing among us that morning. Many hearts were broken, but how beautiful and healing the brokenness was.

In the book Steps to Christ, we are told:

"If you see your sinfulness, do not wait to make yourself better. How many there are who think they are not good enough to come to Christ. Do you expect to become better through your own efforts? 'Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.' Jeremiah 13:23. There is help for us only in God. We must not wait for stronger persuasions, for better opportunities, or for holier tempers. We can do nothing of ourselves. We must come to Christ just as we are" (p. 31).

Of course, making things right with God privately is what matters most, and what happens in secret between us and God is always more significant than what happens in public. But since the Holy Spirit convicted me to share, I knew I needed to be transparent and open that morning.

I will never forget one elderly gentleman who came forward after the service. He told me how he had come to the meetings with a crusty heart of skepticism and doubt but seeing me honestly share my struggles and my need of the Savior had convicted him of his own need, and, as a result, that morning he decided to give his heart to the Lord.

"I've never seen leaders on the platform be real before like you were today, Melody," he told me through moist eyes. "It always seems like such a performance at religious events. But you showed me today that God is real, because I saw how He was convicting you, breaking you, and changing you. Thank you..." His voice cracked as he reached out to hug me.

Week 4 | April 25 – May 1 | Come to Jesus as You Are | Study

Welcome to another Back to the Altar | 100 Days of Prayer revival lesson.

Have you ever spent extra time brushing and flossing your teeth on the day that you had an appointment to get your teeth cleaned at the dentist?

We can laugh, but if we are honest, many of us have done this because, well, we want to try to look our best when we see the dentist.

Perhaps you sometimes feel that you need to be in a certain condition before you can come to Jesus? Maybe you think you must be positive, happy, responsible, or all clean physically and mentally. Maybe you think you must be feeling spiritual and have your best foot forward before He will accept you. Maybe you think you have to have your life all in order or have certain qualifications before you can follow the “I WILL GO” call, to tell others about Jesus’ soon return.

Before we begin our study on what it means to come to Jesus as we are, let’s take a look at the life of Elijah. We can learn so many lessons from his story that apply to our spiritual walk.

- Play Video 1 – “Introduction to Elijah’s Story” <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID9>

Elijah was a man who God called and used to rebuild the broken down altar of worship in Israel. Fire fell in response to Elijah’s faith and obedience. But this would never have happened if Elijah hadn’t taken the first step forward, coming in obedience just as he was, in answer to God’s call.

Today, God is calling us to repair the broken down altars in our own lives and hearts. He’s calling us to be “The Last Elijah,” calling to a world in need. This is why we are going to be studying the life of Elijah in small segments for the rest of this Back to the Altar revival series.

1. Who Can Come to Jesus?

Here's some encouragement straight from God's Word.

Read/Reflect on Matthew 11:28-30 – What invitation do we find in this passage? Who is the one making the invitation? Do you qualify?

Read/Reflect on Luke 5:30-32 – According to Jesus who qualifies to come to Him?

We are all unworthy, we are all sinners in need of a Savior. And that’s why we can come just as we are. Jesus will never turn away the person that comes to Him in need.

However, even as we see these truths in Scripture, many of us still struggle believing that God could really save us. We feel so unworthy. We feel so unlovely. We just don’t feel at peace.

The discipleship survey we took in the very beginning of this Back to the Altar series gave evidence to that fact that even some taking part in these revival sessions don't know if they would be saved if Jesus came back tomorrow. Perhaps that person is you!

Before we study how we can have peace about our salvation, let's pause a moment.

Do you know how much God loves you? If you aren't sure how much He loves you, you will especially appreciate the message in this short video illustration.

- Play video 2 – “Jesus will Never Let You Go” - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID10>

Now that we have been reminded nothing can separate us from God's love, let's open the Word for some more study.

2. Seven Steps to Having Assurance and Peace about our Salvation

We are going to study seven simple steps that show us how we can have assurance and peace about our salvation. Get your notebook out, as you will want to write these passages down to remember.

Read/Reflect on Romans 5:8. How do you know that God loves you?

We just learned in Romans 8:38, 39 that nothing can separate us from God's love. Here's our first step to assurance of Salvation. We will fill in the first answer for you.

- Step 1: You can be sure that nothing will separate you from God's love.

Read/Reflect Romans 3:23 and Romans 6:23 (first part). What problem do we all have?

- Step 2: You can be sure, as a sinner, you need _____.

Read/Reflect on Romans 6:23 (last part) and Ephesians 2:8, 9. What free gift does God offer you?

- Step 3: You can be sure that salvation is God's _____.

Read/Reflect on John 3:16. How does this free gift of eternal life become yours?

- Step 4: You can be sure that Jesus is your Savior when you _____.

Read/Reflect on Ephesians 2:22 and 1 Corinthians 6:19. Who wants to live in us?

- Step 5: You can be sure that Jesus wants to make His home in _____.

Read/Reflect on 1 John 1:9. What does Jesus do for you when you confess your sins?

- Step 6: You can be sure that Jesus completely _____.

Read/Reflect on 1 John 5:13. What does this verse tell you that you can know for sure?

- Step 7: Finally, you can be sure that Jesus gives you _____.

God tells us in Revelation 7:9 that there will be a countless multitude of those who are saved in heaven. God has planned for you to be one of them!

Did you get all the blanks filled in appropriately. Here's the answers if you missed anything.

Step 2: Answer: "the Savior."

Step 3: Answer: "free gift to you."

Step 4: Answer: "believe in Him."

Step 5: Answer: "your heart via the Holy Spirit."

Step 6: Answer: "forgives and cleans your heart."

Step 7: Answer: "eternal life."

As we close this session, listen to this powerful appeal from Revelation 3:20. What is your answer to Jesus?

- Play Video 3 – "Jesus is Knocking" - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTAVID11>

3. Personal Practical Application

As we close, don't forget the gift Jesus offers you in Himself. Remember He loves you, and nothing can separate you from His love.

- 1st Challenge: Practice every day coming to Jesus just as you are. Allow Him a place in your home and your heart.
- 2nd Challenge: Share the study we just completed on the assurance of salvation with someone this week.

Don't forget, you are invited to join the General Conference weekly Back to the Altar revival on zoom that takes place every Sunday at 6 A.M. Eastern Standard Time. All are welcome! Zoom link - <https://tinyurl.com/BTTA100> Password: 18442025
